

First Capitol Detachment #521 was pleased to recognize two JROTC students among those honored during the 2022 Military Ball hosted by William Penn Senior High School of York.

CDT/CPT Carliza Johnson is a junior and serves as the Battalion S3 Operations Officer. She is a member of the varsity cheerleading team; has supported extracurricular activities such as parades and color guards and has taken on the leadership role of the military ball committee. She shows compassion when teaching junior cadets how to accomplish mission, conduct training, and try things outside of their comfort zone. The MCL Bronze Distinguished Citizen Award was presented by John McQuain (left photo).

CDT/CPT Robert Smith has grown into himself in the last three years and has established himself as a leader and a good citizen. He serves as the Battalion S2 Security Officer. He has supported extracurricular activities such as parades and color guards and drill competition; inventories sensitive items and our fund raising items. He also shows compassion when teaching junior cadets how to accomplish mission, conduct training, and try things outside of their comfort zone. The MCL Bronze Distinguished Citizen Award was presented by John Crone (right photo).

The cadets were nominated for the award by Senior Army Instruction MAJ(R) Adam Clark.
